

Position:

Application developer

Job Description:

We are seeking a programmer to assist in the development and launch of an application to improve the use of Facebook through the simplification of its user interface. Details of the application's purpose will be outlined once interest has been shown in our project.

If interested, please contact Graham for further information:

613-862-4691

graham.sm94@gmail.com

If a response is not received within 24 hours, please contact Cameron

613-898-8862